

The American Association of Settlement Consultants (AASC) is an industry advocacy group committed to a vibrant, strong and modern settlement planning industry.

We promote collaboration with the structured settlement industry, actively encourage balanced settlement planning on behalf of our clients, and believe in integrated, common-sense solutions that protect the needs of injured people and their families.

Together, we work for public policies that strengthen our essential industry and provide benefits to the consumer.

366,205

Victims Helped Since 2008

Thousands of injured parties have benefited by structuring their legal settlements

$5.6B

Structured Yearly

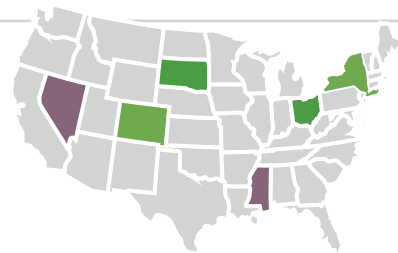

Average annual amount invested in structured settlements from 2000-2020

38

Years Since January 14, 1983

Since structured settlements were created by the federal government to provide victims with long-term financial security

800

Settlement Consultants

Hundreds of settlement consultants, licensed by their states and appointed by each insurance company work to resolve cases to their clients benefit

Educate. Engage. Evolve.

Sign up and join us!

 americanasc.org

 info@americanasc.org